Department of Physics of A. S. C. College, Ramanandnagar conducted an educational aid activity on 24th August 2019 for flood affected students of the college. Teaching and non-teaching staff from department of Physics voluntarily contributed for the cause.

A total of 666 Students of the Junior and Senior wing of the college from flood affected region (8 Students from department of Physics) were assisted with four notebooks and a pen each. The aid was distributed in auspicious presence of Honorable Principal Dr. L. D. Kadam.

Outcomes:
1. The students received succor in the time of need.
2. A sense of social responsibility was executed and impressed in the minds of students.

Beneficiaries:
A total eight students from department of Physics.