Report on One Day Workshop on

"Investors Awareness: Building a Secure Financial Future"

On 4th September 2024, the Departments of Commerce, Economics and BCA jointly organized a one-day workshop entitled "Investors Awareness: Building a Secure Financial Future". The purpose of the workshop was to educate students and staff on various investment opportunities, financial planning, and the importance of making informed decisions to secure their financial future.

The event commenced with a formal inauguration Prin. Prof. (Dr.) U. V. Patil chaired the first session and also delivered the keynote address. Dr. Sarika Lohana, the Chief Guest and a financial expert, provided an in-depth presentation covering essential topics such as the role of the share market in wealth creation, the benefits of mutual funds as a diversified investment option and the significance of investing in gold bonds as a secure and low-risk asset. She also explained the crucial difference between savings and investments, highlighting the importance of investments for long-term financial growth. Her session was interactive, with participants actively engaging in a question-answer segment, allowing for practical discussions on investment strategies. The sessions were compared by Mr. B. D. Patil and Dr. A. S. Kamble introduced the guests.

In the second session, chaired by Dr. P. B. Patil, Mr. Pravin Jadhav shared valuable insights on how to assess companies and mutual fund schemes using key financial parameters. He explained how to analyze a company's profitability, revenue trends and debt to equity ratio, as well as how to evaluate mutual fund performance by considering portfolio composition, past performance, and cost structures. This session aimed to equip participants with the tools to make informed investment decisions that align with their personal financial goals.

The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. S. R. Kundle, expressing gratitude to the dignitaries, speakers and participants. The organizing committee which included Smt. P. D. Pudale, Prof. Dr. P. B. Patil, Smt. N. S. Borade, Dr. S. R. Bankar, Ms. S. S. Jadhav, Ms. A. P. Kadam and Ms. A. A. Satape played a crucial role in the success of the event. A total of 95 students and staff members benefitted from the workshop gaining practical knowledge and confidence in navigating the world of investments and financial planning. The workshop was a significant achievement in promoting financial literacy and awareness among the participants.
